
Dart players wanted!

Posted by asunny1 - 2008/01/04 12:01

The Waterhole Saloon is looking for a team. New owners have taken over and they would like to bring the dart players back to this forgotten corner of the Austin area. New contests with cash prizes and drink specials will make this a fun place to play. Additionally, if there is any interest, they would like to bring back the Sunday afternoon blind draw.

For those who like to diversify, there is a Texas Hold-em tournament on Sunday as well. Blind draw scheduling will take into account any desire to be able to play both.

E-mail me at asunny1@aol.com, if interested, or give us a call at 247-5119. Even better, come by and meet the staff and sign up in person. el will be able to have sign up sheets available on Saturday 1/5 so we can make registration next week.
